FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS, GRADUATES AND SKILLED-VISA APPLICANTS

What's happening in skilled migration

Invitation rounds, state nomination programs, the EOI queue and processing times, in one place. Every official figure links to where it came from.

01 Invitation rounds
The latest rounds from Home Affairs and the states that publish them.

02 State nomination programs
Where each state's and territory's 190 and 491 programs stand.

03 The EOI queue
Expressions of interest (EOIs) submitted in SkillSelect, by points score.

04 Processing times
Home Affairs' figures for the 189, 190, 491, 485, 500 and more.

05 What changed
Changes on the state and Home Affairs pages we watch, in plain words.

06 Community reports
Invitations people report, reviewed by a person before they appear.

Roundwatch takes no commission from any college or agent, sells no leads and lists no paid agents. It is not run by any university.

Roundwatch shows aggregated public information with a source for every number. It is not immigration assistance and never tells you what to lodge. For advice, see a registered migration agent (OMARA register) or an Australian legal practitioner. Roundwatch is independent and not affiliated with the Australian Government or the Department of Home Affairs.
